The Steering Committee was called to order by Dr. Ida J. Cook, Chair, at 4:10 p.m. The roll was circulated for signatures. The Minutes of August 20, 1998 were unanimously approved. Members present: Drs. Lee Armstrong, Lee Cross, Karl-Heinrich Barsch, John Leeson, Phil Taylor, Rosie Joels, James McBrayer, and Linda Malone. Guests included: Vice Provost Frank E. Juge, Dr. James Campbell, English Department and Dr. Taylor Ellis, Hospitality Management.

Announcements
Dr. Ida Cook announced that Dr. Modani left for India last week to visit his mother who is seriously ill. Provost Whitehouse is attending a Board of Regents meeting in Pensacola. Dr. Cook welcomed visitors Drs. Juge, Ellis and Campbell.
Dr. Juge was asked about the reaction on campus regarding the proposed leveled system for the SUS. The question was asked “Would UCF be held back by that situation?” Dr. Juge responded that it would depend on how it is funded. He indicated that the feeling was positive, but it was important to assure that there was going to be an equitable distribution of funding for all levels. The danger lies in the possibility of UCF receiving less dollars. There is a need to lobby. It was suggested that the Faculty Senate would be willing to express its support in the form of a resolution if necessary. Dr. Juge stated that he would relay this message to Drs. Whitehouse and Hitt. He was sure they would appreciate the support.
Dr. Cook inquired about the number of sabbaticals at the SUS. Dr. Juge responded that UCF and USF give more sabbaticals than other institutions. There is the need to consider the criteria and the quality of the proposals. It was suggested that perhaps the Foundation may be willing to fund some sabbaticals. Dr. Juge agreed to discuss the possibility with Dr. Cook.
It was announced that the Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning had been recognized by SHEEO (State of Higher Education Executive Officers) for best practices in faculty development and technology.
